1. HOW TO REACH SORRENTO:

BY PLANE

Naples International Capodichino airport is 50 km from Sorrento. From the airport we advise guests to take the Curreri bus to Sorrento which leaves the square in front of the airport station. Every day six daily trips are available connecting the airport and Sorrento in more or less one hour and 15 minutes. The bus is just outside the Arrival gates.

Curreri Timetable:

9.00 am	2.30 pm
11.00 am	4.30 pm
	6.00 pm
	7.30 pm

BY TRAIN

From any direction arrive to Naples Central Station or Naples Piazza Garibaldi. From here take the local "Circumvesuviana" train for Sorrento and get off at the Sorrento stop. Trips available every 20 minutes. The trips takes about 1 hour.

BY CAR

If you are coming from the north or south, you can take the A3 Napoli - Salerno highway. Follow the signs for Penisola Sorrentina and exit at Castellammare di Stabia. Then take the SS 145 state road. Pass Vico Equense, Meta and Piano di Sorrento until you arrive to Sorrento.

BY SEA

The Molo Beverello (Beverello Pier) is located adjacent to the Maritime Station at the Port of Naples in front of the Town Hall Square (Piazza Municipio). The Pier offers daily services to Sorrento with ferries. The trip takes approximately 45-50 minutes. The journey is a lot more comfortable than the train one, however it can be much more expensive (about double). The arrival of ferries in Sorrento is the Marina Piccola (Small Marina) and you may reach the city of Sorrento by taking the local bus to the city center (top of the hill) or a taxi.
